Reverend Dear Sir:

We have the pleasure of sending to you the circular of our New York branch.

We sell religious articles, which are made in our own factory at Barcelona, Spain.

Our house, established in 1873 by the well known manufacturer, Jacinto Calsina, is appreciated in all Europe, Central and South America; and many of our images are revered in several Catholic churches and convents.

Barcelona is the very center of Europe concerning the wood carved religious sculpture, and our house is the most credited in this line of business; therefore we have no doubt that our goods will be at the very taste of all North America, as it has been in the above mentioned countries.

In our store you will find also every article concerning the catholic culte.

With all our pleasure we will answer to you all the questions regarding our own affairs.

Hoping to hear from you at your earliest convenience, we remain,

Sincerely yours,

Calsina and Salvat.

DEAR SIR:

I have the honor of informing you that having received several architectural books of the Spanish buildings, I should have a real pleasure in showing them to you, if you may have the kindness to visit my store whenever you please.

Respectfully yours,

Calsina & Salvat.
